

BEST OF KC's BEST

Salina Kansas Kollosal Kan Kaper

Bill Boyles

And the show goes on.

The Carrie Nation and KC's Best Chapters hosted the 42nd annual Kansas Kolossal Kan Kaper & Kattle Stampede in June at the Best Western SureStay hotel and at Thomas Park in Salina, Kansas. The weather was typical central Kansas weather, but this year even the rain cooperated and did not affect our scheduled events. Here are some of the statistics for this annual show:

- There have been 564 different people attend the show, with an average show attendance of 67.
- 26 BCCA Presidents have attended during their presidential term.
- Marcia Butterbaugh was the first President to attend in 1985.
- Bill Boyles has attended all 42 shows.
- Carl Covell, Tom Hull, and Gary McCarty have attended 41 times.
- Tom Waggoner has attended 40 times.
- This year's attendance of 64 was the largest in the past six years.
- Long time attendee Dennis Sackett made his 30th appearance after missing some of the last few shows.
- Attendees this year came from 11 states

Thanks to all attendees for coming to this show.

Next year's show is planned for June 24-26, 2022.

Chapter of the BCCA

Saturday was a great weather day for us at the city park, where everyone could find a shady spot to park and set out their trade stock. Thanks to signs posted alongside the road, and advertising on social media; we seemed to have a few more walk-ins (or are they drive-ins?) than usual. Two good raffles were held, and pizza was brought in for lunch. In the later afternoon it was time for people to head into town or go to the hotel for relaxation. That evening was the world famous margarita party under the big shade tree. I've heard that it is the best margarita party in Kansas because of the crowd it draws.

Sunday morning was time for coffee, individually wrapped muffins, and the final short raffle before we checked out and headed home. Join us next year, just get on I-70 toward Kansas, you'll find us.

Carrie Nation Topeka Fall Show

This year's annual show is scheduled for Sunday September 26th.

Officially called the Jerry Trowbridge Memorial Beer Can and Breweriana Show the event will be held at the Crestview Shelter House in Topeka.

For early arrivals Saturday Marc Milner will have a social time at his house (4101 SW 35th Ter)

As has become tradition, we'll meet for dinner at the Blind Tiger Brewery (417 SW 37th) at 5:00.

Missouri Ozarks Fall Show

The Missouri Ozarks Chapter puts on two shows a year- one in the spring and one in the fall. The fall show is coming up on Saturday October 2nd so be sure to get your itinerary planned.

The show is held outdoors at the Mike & Michele Fritz ranch. 1031 Natural Road, Elkland, MO.

Just as in the past bring your breweriana, chairs, beverages, tables (we have a few to put out). Bring a guest or two who collect breweriana.

We'll do the cooking & sides. Bring a 4 or 6 pack of craft beer to put in ice cooler for beer trade.

Please let Michele know if you're attending. Email her at beercanmom@gmail.com or text her at 573-690-6552.

The Goat Brewery is now the 5th brewery operating in Lees Summit as the number of craft breweries in the KC Metro continues to grow.

The Goat is located on 291 highway and pretty close to Diametric Brewing Co. Since they have just recently opened they are still working up various aspects of their operation but they already have it down pat on their various beer styles

I sampled a couple of their beers and they were very good (craft brewed beer usually is).

Now that logo. I would for sure cast my vote for the brewery logo of the year award.

This postcard promoting Goetz Country Club Malt Liqueur was made while both St. Joseph and Kansas City plants were in operation. The wording on the back: “Connoisseurs of fine liquors agree that Country Club Malt liquor adds a special touch to any occasion. Its smoothness and wine-like character combine the brightness of beer with the sparkle of champagne. It’s a truly satisfying beverage that you’ll be happy to drink, proud to serve. Let Country Club Malt Liqueur whet your appetite before dinner. Enjoy it with meals. It’s the perfect compliment to hors d’oeuvres or smorgasboard. You’ll find it just right, too, for your after-dinner relaxation or that “before retiring” drink.

Callsign Brewing has canned their American Wheat in 12 oz cans and named it “Huey”.

KCBEST.ORG

As many of us are frequent patrons of craft breweries around the KC Metroplex, be sure to mention our chapter website to the owners/employees... The ones that have visited it have been very complimentary and it’s a good way to get the word out about our hobby.

City Barrel Brewery continues to roll out different styles packaged in 12 oz (and recently 16 oz) cans. There have been around a dozen introduced just over the summer. Shown here is BABY BOOM which is an Hazy IPA.

Newsletter Deadline

The deadline for articles and/or show flyers for the next newsletter will be December 1st.

Any member can submit an article, an idea for an article or pictures of finds made, shows attended, breweries visited or anything else related to our hobby.

If you have ideas for an article but need help composing we can help. Send to Bob Hoover at kcbestcan@aol.com

Please contribute.

WHAT IS IT?

This item was posted to the BCCA Facebook page by a member who was giving it to the first member who wanted it. Needless to say, it was claimed within seconds. My question is what it is? From the picture it looks like a patch but I've never seen it before.

Transparent Brewery is the first brewery to operate in Grandview. Located right behind Gail's Harley Davidson at I-49 & 150 highway, Transparent occupies a building built specifically for them along with a food café co-tenant.

They have a large outside seating area which was covered with a tent the day we were there. Be sure to pay them a visit when in South Kansas City. It is most definitely worth your while.

Last Thursday at Boulevard

Well, it was the last Thursday before the Kansas Kolossal Kan Kaper and with collectors from far away places in town it seemed like it would be appropriate to meet at Boulevard to plan our adventures in Salina.

42nd ANNUAL KANSAS KOLLOSAL KAN KAPER

This year's edition of the Kan Kaper in Salina was held June 26-28 and hosted by the Carrie Nation and KC's Best chapters.

We had over 60 registrations from 12 states (AZ, VA, WI, IN, KY, TX, SD, OK, NE, CO, MO, and KS)

Friday under the Flowering Yellow Hawthorne.

Well look who showed up at the show. None other than the Kansas Kolossal Kan Kaper registration icon himself. Yep, that is Dennis Sackett at the park pavilion with Bill Lester (L) and son Matt Sackett (center). Dennis came for the Saturday part of the show and made his way around the park to greet and chat with everyone. It was great to see you Dennis!

A big thank you to Super Dave Osborne for submitting the show pictures on this and the next two pages.

Looks like the pavilion is packed with those getting protection from the sun while Dave Yost and Gary McCarty help out with the raffle. As usual, there were plenty of quality raffle items to be won.

Beer Dave Gausepohl, Dennis Sackett, Kathy Covell

Super Dave Osborne is handed his raffle prize by Gary McCarty.

Glen Pederson holds up a lighted sign he won in the raffle. But where is Brufus the puppy dog?

Sunday morning raffle at the host hotel

The Sunday morning raffle is the traditional conclusion of this show and a chance to say see you next year.

Chapter El Presidente Senor Bruce Gregg shares a toast to the show with Gary McCarty and Marcia Butterbaugh.

Historic Downtown Belton is home to the Broken Hatchet Brewery. They have converted an old time building into an attractive facility with ample seating capacity. Some of their operating plans are not yet in place as they await shipment of items held up by shipping bottlenecks.

Martin City Brewing has added to their expansive line up with Coastline IPA which is packaged in a colorful 12 oz can. Shown below is the Pouter which is a Belgian style tripel ale and Curve Ball which is a wheat ale.

Well well now. Three Trails Brewery in Independence is canning their ales in 12 oz cans. Indy Pride is a saison ale with pink guava. Pils is a Czech pilsner lager. Currently Numb is an IPA with currants and vanilla and Global Disturbance is an IPA.

Johnson Drive is rapidly becoming a craft brewing Mecca (excluding the insurmountable East Crossroads district). Rock Creek Brewing is another brewery on the Johnson Drive corridor. There are now six open on Johnson Drive and a 7th is under construction. Rock Creek has one of the better set ups with a very large outdoor seating area to go along with an expansive indoor area.

CANvention in St Louis - Remotely

Bob Hoover

After 22 straight CANventions it became necessary to sit 50.v.2 out. However, with today's technology being utilized by many of the attendees, it almost felt like I was there.

Our BCCA office manager, Sue Dressel, as well as several CANvention attendees, did an awesome job of filming activities, events and other items associated with CANvention and posting it to Facebook. Viewing the film clips and photos almost felt like being there.

Ohio Mini-Convention

Baby Mahazy is in a 16 oz can from Diametric Brewing and is a pale ale with hibiscus.

Torn Label Brewing Nice Driveway is a 12 oz Czech-Style Pilsner. Speaking of Torn Label, their new taproom space next to the brewery is a huge improvement over the previous layout.

City Barrel Brewing has what appears to be a new series called Holmes St Release/ The can shown here is a pilsner and is a 12 oz can.

Shown below in 12 oz cans from Crane Brewing is Summer Camp which is an IPA and shows Lake Quivira Country Club on the side.

Blueberry Donut is a Imperial Stout.
